

Rings
Justin Simien, Director / Drama / 12 minutes

A wedding takes place in a rural town and draws the ire of the conservative townspeople who call the union 'abominable' but will an armed and brooding young man reach the wedding in time to do what even the raging protestors wouldn't dare?

Brooklyn's Bridge to Jordan
Tina Mabry, Director / Drama / 20 minutes

A woman must fight to rebuild her relationship with her deceased partner's estranged son.

Jumpin' the Broom
Debra A. Wilson, Director / Documentary / 28 minutes

Jumpin' the Broom gives a voice to same sex marriage in the African American community.

Opening Night Film: 5:45 pm

Pick Up The Mic
Alex Hinton, Director / Documentary / 95 minutes

Pick Up The Mic is a surprising, inspiring documentary on the fast-growing world of queer rappers and the community they've created.

7pm - (Atlanta Premier)
"Dirty Laundry" -Comedy / 95 mins.

Director -Maurice Jamal (USA, 2006)
Rich Theatre
Robert W. Woodruff Arts Center
1280 Peachtree Street, NE

Dirty Laundry is a dramedy that follows a traditional small-town southern family, dealing with the secrets that are uncovered when the long-lost son (Rockmond Dunbar) suddenly returns home from a seemingly perfect life in New York. In the center of the conflict is the mother (Loretta Devine), who's own story holds as much drama and secrecy as her son's.

Sunday, September 3, 2006 - 2:00 pm
Keith & Greg
Ken Jackson, Director / Comedy / 65 minutes

Keith & Greg is a witty, romantic love story that blends a mix of unlikely characters into one endearing film and takes matchmaking and match-meddling to new heights.

continued on page 21

