Official Atlanta Black Gay Pride Marketplace

All payments must be received by August 1, 2009

In the Life Atlanta was founded as the official organizer of Atlanta Black Pride since its inception in 1996. As a non-profit 501(c)3 community service organization, it is our mission to provide education, entertainment, and a positive voice for the African American LGBT communities in greater Atlanta. In 2004, Atlanta was proud to be the host to the largest African American LGBT Pride celebration in the world, a distinction that continues into 2009 as we celebrate our 13 year anniversary as a community service organization and annual pride organizer.

We invite you to join us in this celebration by taking part in the official Atlanta Black Gay Pride Marketplace. Your product or service will be exposed to over 75,000 visitors from around the world who are coming to celebrate with us during our annual Labor Day Weekend celebration. Atlanta's Black Gay Pride Marketplace is a three day vendors market held indoors at our host hotel or outdoors at the Unity Picnic. Featuring over 100 unique vendors from across the country, the Marketplace provides our guest with an opportunity to sample and purchase merchandise and services from vendors who cater to their needs.

This year, the marketplace will enjoy a dedicated full featured exhibit hall space providing more space, better lighting, and the flexibility to accommodate unique merchant display requirements.
